Our Story

Australian By Design was established in 2003 and was located in Melbourne's beautiful historic circa 1890's The Block Arcade until 31 Dec 2023. One of the few businesses remaining in Australia exclusively specializing in genuine Australian made products. Most of our products are hand made by Australian craftspeople whose skills and finished products are equal to the best in the World. Our Aboriginal art is original and is crafted by Aboriginal people.

We endeavor to ship all orders the next business day by Registered Post within Australia, or Express Post if preferred. Overseas orders are shipped per Express Courier International, generally orders sent this way are received in most parts of the world within one week, sometimes quicker than delivery within Australia. Tracking details and tracking links are provided for every order.

Our friendly and experienced staff are dedicated to customer service.

Take something home from Australia that is Australian!

For any assistance, please contact us either by telephone or email.

Coasters Aboriginal Sample Presentation Box

(Set of six boxed Coasters)

Each of the sets of six boxed Aboriginal Coasters come in a box similar to this one.

Coasters Aboriginal Walkatjara Arts

(Set of six boxed Coasters)

Set of six beautifully presented Coasters. Walkatjara Arts Uluru is an Aboriginal Art Centre located in the Uluru-Kata Tjuta Cultural Centre. Walkatjara means "having design" in the Pitjantjatjara language.

The Walkatjara Artists have developed a unique style when reproducing the famous rock formations in the park. These contemporary artworks and designs are distinctive in their use of bright colours, clean lines and abstract forms.

The Artists' inspiration is derived from their ancestral lands, and the deep spiritual importance of the ancient landscape.

The female artists who make up the membership of the Art Centre, live in the Mutitjulu Community which is situated within the Uluru-Kata National Park. This World Heritage listed cultural landscape is characterized by the red sand dunes and spinifex country of Central Australia.

Coasters Aboriginal Whitton

(Set of six boxed Coasters)

Set of six beautifully presented Coasters with artwork created by Aboriginal artists Wayne Whitton, belonging to Kamilaroi Tribe, and Deborah Whitton, to Wiradjuri Tribe, from New South Wales.

The use of rich vivid earth colours and their traditional technique and pointillist style depict stories of the Dreamtime. The Coasters are presented boxed as shown elsewhere in this section.

Aboriginal Candles

Artwork by Melanie Hava which tells a tale through Indigenous Aboriginal art with a contemporary flair, combining her Aboriginal and Austrian heritage. Melanie had successfully exhibited at many galleries across Australia in Aboriginal, Folk and Abstract arts. Based in far North Queensland she draws inspiration from her mother's land where she feels close to the spirit of the rainforest and reef animals that are represented in her artwork that adorns our candles.

Eamonn Vereker Glass

Australian made in various colours and beautifully handcrafted by Eamonn Vereker.

Eamonn Vereker has worked with glass for more than 40 years. He began as an apprentice at Waterford Crystal, Ireland, qualifying as a Master Cutter in 1976 and immigrated to Australia in 1987. His glass combines the traditions of Irish skill and craftsmanship with the brilliant colours of Australia, including the lush blues of the coral reef. A beautiful hand blown glass creation by a true craftsman.

As every piece is individually made, actual size, shape and colour form may vary from the illustration and description.

These beautiful pieces would suit any home and make a stunning gift for any occasion.

Made in Tasmania from fine lead free Australian pewter. 17th and 18th century Europe saw lead based pewter predominantly used in eating and drinking vessels. What followed as a result, was an influx in lead related deaths, or Plumbism. This concern prompted the British to develop a standard for pewter production, which to this day remains.

A minimum of approximately 90% tin which must be LEAD FREE in composition.
